FOREWORD

The Certification Handbook is designed to provide information to association members, school districts, interested agencies, and individuals in regard to training programs, courses of study, and certification developed and implemented by the Texas Association for School Nutrition.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Texas Association for School Nutrition Certification Sub Committee is grateful to the individuals and groups of people across the state for their assistance in promoting professionalism in the career of school food service. The long-term project of developing a quality educational program is the result of the dedication and involvement of the TASN members, officers, committees, retirees, colleges and instructors, Texas Education Agency, Texas Department of Agriculture, Region Education Service Centers, and local school districts.

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Texas Association for School Nutrition Certification Sub Committee is to provide a current quality education program with timely data for the purpose of continuous improvement of the Child Nutrition Program.

GOALS

- To improve competency in job performance as evidenced by excellence in school nutrition programs.
- To provide a means of recognition by peers and other professionals for all levels of employees in school nutrition.
- To promote the building of pride and self-esteem by involvement in the TASN training program.
- To establish a recognized career ladder system for the advancement of school food service personnel.

To educate membership about the educational opportunities offered by the School Nutrition Association (formerly ASFSA and now SNA).

REQUIREMENTS

CERTIFICATION GUIDELINES

There are three categories of requirements for TASN Certification. They are as follows:

- Membership in TASN is a requirement for certification.
- Work experience in school food service.
- Required courses directly related to the food service field.

The program progresses from basic skills to managerial and administrative responsibilities from Level 1 to Level 5. Each course level requires a certain number of certification hours. The individual may select certain training courses that will enhance their job skills; however, some courses may require specific number of hours.

TASN Certification Program is from Level 1 to Level 5 therefore, Level 6 and Level 7 have been changed to Level 5.

TASN members are also encouraged to participate in the School Nutrition Association Certification program and with careful course selection, members can become both TASN and SNA certified at the same time.

Certification Responsibilities

Member responsibilities:

- When a member is signing up for class(s) they must write their name as it appears on the TASN membership card.
- When taking courses, it is the member's responsibility to make certain that the course counts at the level the member is working toward.
- Each course certificate may only be used once, either for certification or re-certification.

Self-study opportunities - It is the member's responsibility to determine that a course is approved by our TASN Headquarters for self-study prior to taking the course.

There is a grace period of 90 days from the certification (previously named upgrade) expiration date for the member to certify for the next level. Effective 10/1/2016, if the member does not apply to certify for the next level or re-certify for their current level within the 90 day grace period they will be required to re-start the certification program with Level 1.

Helpful Tips:

- Please submit all certificates for the level in which you are applying for in the same envelope, fax, or email. Keep in mind payment may not be collected via phone or email for confidentiality purposes.
- When submitting your Certification Application, at least one-half of the required hours must be completed in an in-class/pupil-teacher relationship.
- All required course hours must be attended in order to receive a certificate of completion, partial credit will NOT be given. If a member needs to miss class time due to an illness or family/personal emergency, a letter written by the member must be submitted to the Headquarters office in order to receive credit for time attended.
- A variety of courses must be submitted when applying for certification; multiple certificates for the same course will not be accepted.

EXPIRATION OF COURSES

All courses expire after 5 years, unless they are college credit (transcript) courses. Courses may not be used for certification or re-certification after they have expired.

COURSES TAKEN AT COLLEGES

Semester/College Hours

Each 4 semester hours of college credit in a food service related field is equivalent to 16 hours of TASN Certification credit. College courses that are part of a degree plan that is related to nutrition, dietetics, food service, food service management, or directly related field will count towards certification.

A college transcript is a permanent record; therefore, these credit hours do not ever expire. They may be used as certification credit at any time. They may be used for re-certification, however, only if taken during the three-year re-certification period.

COURSE SPONSOR RESPONSIBILITIES

Course sponsors (Local TASN chapters, school districts, industry partners, and ESCs) should at all times strive to publicize the correct level for each course offered. If there is any question regarding the level for a course, the sponsor should contact the Certification Department at the TASN headquarters prior to advertising the course.

Confusion among members can be avoided if the sponsor publicizes the correct level for each course offered.

Course approvals:

If the course is part of a workshop, the approval form must be sent in at least 45 days in advance due to Professional Standard Guidelines.

If the course is an in-district course (only applies to district-wide employees), the approval form must be sent in at least 30 days in advance.

Courses must be a minimum of 2 hours. If a district would like to teach a course in smaller increments these times must be combined on one certificate to total 2+ hours.

Requirement to teach TASN approved courses:

Instructor(s) must be TASN Certified at Level 3 or 4 and must have taken Train the Trainer within the past 5 years or be TASN Certified at Level 5. If instructor is not TASN Certified, they must then have a Bachelor's Degree and submit an unofficial copy of his or her transcript with the first application sent in.

TASN will accept a course certificate of completion from state accredited sources that may be applied towards two (2) online hours for Level 1 certification or Level 1-5 re-certification, unless otherwise specified.

Additional information regarding the food handler program may be located online at:

<http://www.dshs.texas.gov/food-handlers/default.aspx>

2. After three years the retiree must re-certify with the required number of re-certification hours in effect at the time he/she re-certifies. Failure to re-certify within three years of returning to the work force will make the retiree subject to the same re-certification requirements as any other TASN certified member.

RE-CERTIFICATION GUIDELINES

Re-Certification certificates are issued for a three-year period. As a courtesy, a notice of expiration is mailed to members, district, or to designated address 60 days prior to expiration. It is, however, the responsibility of the member to keep track of the expiration date and to keep TASN updated with the current mailing addresses. The individual must complete a current application form and submit it with the appropriate fee(s) to the TASN office prior to the expiration date shown on the certificate.

There is a grace period of 90 days from the expiration date for the member to re-certify. Effective 10/1/2016, if the member does not apply to re-certify for their current level within the 90 day grace period they will be required to re-start the certification program with Level 1. A member may not re-certify greater than 120 days prior to their expiration date.

If an applicant applies for certification or re-certification and does not meet the requirements, the fee is not refunded. However, a credit will be extended for one year from the date of receipt at TASN Headquarters Office provided the individual meets the requirements within that period.

SUGGESTIONS FOR PLANNING AND HOSTING CERTIFICATION WORKSHOPS

Many food service employees seek the opportunity to take certification courses for the purpose of improving competency on the job and to use for credit toward TASN certification. Your local chapter of TASN or your School Nutrition Department can be of assistance to these individuals by sponsoring classes within your school district.

To plan and organize a class, please follow these steps:

- 1) Assess the needs of your population to identify which required training area courses to offer.
- 2) Contact your TASN Area Representative to seek help in the implementation of this program or call the Certification Department at the TASN Headquarters Office.
- 3) The Request for Approval form is found in the appendix section and website.
- 4) Determine date, time, and location for courses. Determine the length of training. Classes should be scheduled in segments based on convenience of students, available facilities, and teachers. Inquire about cost of facilities and services that are based on policy of the local school district. Clear these plans through the sponsoring administrator.
- 5) Set class fees and minimum number of students required based on anticipated costs of overall project. Set class maximum based on available facilities and logistics of teacher/student ratio.
- 6) Consider qualifications, salary, and availability of teachers. TASN requires that teachers have a thorough and current knowledge of subject matter.
- 7) Salary is determined by the sponsoring agency.
- 8) As soon as course offerings are determined, contact teachers regarding class assignment, teaching materials, and contracts.
- 9) Develop a registration form that includes student information:
 - a) Name
 - b) Membership Number
 - c) Address
 - d) Telephone number
 - e) School District
 - f) Choice or choices of required courses offered
- 10) Advertise and publicize.

- 11) Hold registration and tally results to determine which classes “made”. Contact persons who requested classes that did not “make” and offer other choices.
- 12) Finalize request for facilities.

- 13) Prepare rosters to use for class rolls and attendance.

- 14) Prior to class time: plan classroom arrangements and supplies for classes and consult with assigned teacher for necessary teaching supplies. Examples of items that may be needed:
 - a) Audio/visual equipment
 - b) Print student booklets based on numbers enrolled.
 - c) Name tags
 - d) Rosters, forms for certificates and tracking
 - e) Demonstration or laboratory supplies
 - f) Break and meal schedule
 - g) Expense form
 - h) Teacher "Code of Ethics"

- 15) On the day of the class:
 - a) Open building at least 30 minutes before classes start.
 - b) Have people and signs to direct students to classrooms and help with late registrations.
 - c) Proceed with classes.

- 16) At the conclusion of the class: Teachers should be responsible for completing a typed, alphabetized, signed list of all students completing the class, returning all class materials and equipment.

- 17) Complete follow-up.

Teachers will be given TASN application certificate by workshop sponsor.
